

Are you ready?

Discover with us the new forms of hospitality and our new product this week from 13 - 17 October 2023 at the world exhibition for the HoReCa and food service industry!

We decided it was time for a little change in temperature. And we are more than excited to present the new Gastros cooling solution at this years Host for the very first time!

Gastros proudly presents:

MEET ME @ HOST

Get the chance to meet our latest member to the team Edward J. Nunn who will be executing the role of VP Sales America/ Canada! We are very excited for him to join our team and join us at the Host!

Meet us on the spot at the host or schedule a personal appointment with your contact person right away! We are looking forward to meeting you!
